

Meet TalentBee

Your personal AI hiring assistant EARLY ACCESS COMING SOON

Congratulations!

You've taken the first step to faster, smarter hiring – connecting with enterprise experts and AI-savvy specialists already in our hive, or sourced by our agents within 72 hours.

Who's TalentBee?

TalentBee is an AI agent that:

✔ Clarifies your hiring needs

✔ Vets potential candidates

✔ Keeps delivery on track

Role Composer

Turns vague hiring needs into clear job descriptions that attract the right talent to you.

Matchmaker

Finds best-fit specialists by interpreting patterns from their profiles, past and active experiences, and proven strengths.

Offer Assistant

Wraps up the hiring process by negotiating and confirming pay, terms, and legal status – for any type of hire.

Hiring hasn't kept pace with today's speed and complexity. That's why we built TalentBee – an AI-powered hiring partner that learns your patterns, turns vague requests into precise matches, and cuts through the noise of AI-built résumés to connect you with trusted specialists who deliver real results.

What's Next?

As a part of your exclusive early access, here's what you can expect:

- ✔ You've claimed your spot. Soon, your TalentBee will be in training. You'll be among the first to activate when we go live. In the meantime, our Specialists are ready and available.
- ✔ Get a first look at your evolving living profile and see how TalentBee is shaping the future of trusted hiring.
- ✔ Regular updates, sneak previews of new features, and exclusive invites to help shape what comes next.
- ✔ First access to match-ready talent via our agent-powered platform.

“Hiring should work at the speed of your business and the quality you expect. That's what we're here to build.”

Heiko Roth, Chief Workerbee
